COMMANDER THOMAS W. WISE, SN
YORK SAIL & POWER SQUADRON

COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

I have had my first failure as the new Commander of your Squadron. No one from our Squadron attended the D/5 Spring Conference at Ocean City, MD in April. I should been there as the new Squadron Commander, but went skiing in Vermont instead. Incoming D/5 Commander, Marty Lafferty, performed our Change of Watch in March, but none of us attended his Change of Watch at the Spring Conference.

Some of you may not be familiar with the D/5 Spring Conference. Of all of the Conferences that D/5 has, this is the one to attend. On Friday night many of the larger D/5 Squadrons set up hospitality suites around the pool atrium at the Princess Royale Hotel. Usually the suites have an educational theme, but almost all include food and drink. Party time! Classes for Squadron officers are held on Saturday. Spouses not interested in the classes can make a run to Berlin, MD to visit the antique shops. Saturday night is the D/5 banquet to induct the new D/5 officers. This is a chance for members with full uniforms to show them off, not that uniforms are required to attend.

Next year the D5 Annual Meeting & Spring Conference is on 28-30 March in Ocean City at the Princess Royale. It would be great if our Squadron could make a showing and fill a whole table at the Saturday night banquet. You do not need to be a Squadron officer to attend. Please put the date on your calendar.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER'S REPORT

Secretary

Lt/P/C Robert W. Nagle, AP
Treasurer

We are trying another venue, courtesy of Susan and Terry Witmer: Viking Athletic Association, 318 N. Adams St., York, PA. This will be a buffet with three selections: broasted chicken, beef roast au jus, and steamed shrimp. Each meal will include scalloped potatoes and a vegetable. The price includes tax and gratuity. Each meal will cost $27.27.

We will need reservations to be made by April 26th. Checks made out to YSPS or cash can be paid at the meeting. The squadron will be charged for any reservations made. Drinks can be purchased with cash; however, if any credit card is used, the Vikings charge an additional 3%.

We are excited about our speaker and his subject, "Titanic – the 100th Anniversary." Jim May has been involved with the York County Heritage Trust (Historical Society) for 20 years. His interest in the Titanic escalated with the finding of the Titanic in 1985. Jim and his wife, Linda, are the only known passengers from South Central PA to make the trip on the 100th Anniversary voyage to the Titanic in April 2012 and will share their pictures and experiences from that adventure.

Your calling committee member will remind you of the meeting and take your reservation, or you can call or e-mail your reservation to Joyce Filius at 244-7010 or jfilius@filius-mclucas.com

We look forward to seeing you all there!
